Stop Tommy Robinson, Stop the far right - unite against racism, Islamophobia and antisemitism

National demonstration Saturday 26 October

Tommy Robinson is coming to London with a hate march to spread his racism and Islamophobia. Robinson is a fascist who founded the English Defence League.

In July, he marched with 20,000 others, chanting Islamophobic and racist chants. The following week saw far right riots across the country.

Stand Up to Racism has called a unity demonstration against Robinson to show that we will not let the far right take over our streets. Our message is clear: stop the far right, unity over division.

We're asking every trade union, faith group, campaign, anti-racist and the thousands who pushed back the far right in August to join our demonstration on 26 October. We are the many, they are the few. Together we can stop the far right.
